PRODUCT CELEBRATION

LARIMAR RING

20% OFF CODE: RESOLUTIONS

This beautiful larimar ring is for the girl who is fearless in the pursuit of what sets her soul on fire. It's made with brass and a generous piece of genuine larimar on an adjustable ring band.

Larimar is also known as The Caribbean Gem, an extremely rare gemstone. It has been found only in one location: a mountainous, relatively inaccessible area in the province of Barahona in the Dominican Republic. Larimar is considered a healing stone, finely tuned to the human body particularly the throat area. It increases speech and communication skills and supports the body's natural healing process. Gorgeous and healing powers! What more can you ask for?
