Because, Jewelry
Always Fits

ABOUT THE BRAND

Pam Favero Mills founded Pink Karma in 2014. She has always been a city girl in a sunny state of mind who grew up traveling coast-to-coast eventually planting her roots in Washington DC.

When Pam's dad was suffering an illness in early 2014 she spent her days off by his side. Pam's dad loved asking her that nagging question, "what do you want to do with your life? What is your passion?"

On a particularly bad day for her dad's health, Pam resorted to every girl's favorite escape, retail therapy. She stumbled upon a little boutique where she found what could be the most perfect necklace if she could just add one thing...that's when it hit her! This is what she wants to do with her life, design lux, risky pieces that are beach inspired and proudly designed and manufactured in the USA.

Pink Karma jewelry is bursting with Fiesta colors and tranquil beach neutrals that are infused with semi precious stones. From our iconic mermaid pieces to our turquoise sea blue Larimar, each piece is designed to remind you Resort is the best season of the year and it takes hard work and hustle to enjoy the good life!

XOXO,
Pink Karma
