PINK KARMA

ABOUT THE BRAND

Growing up a city girl in a sunny state of mind, traveling coast-to-coast, Pamella Mills eventually planted her roots in Washington DC. In Early 2014, Mill's father was severely ill having her need to spend her days off by his side. She always recalls her father loving to ask her that nagging question, "what do you want to do with your life?" Followed by, "What is your passion?" Pondering on this, she continued on. One day when the illness got worst, Mill's resorted to every girl's favorite escape, retail-therapy. During this moment, she stumbled upon a little boutique where she found what could be the most perfect necklace - if she could just add one thing...and that's when it hit her! This was what she wanted to do with her life, design luxe, risky pieces that are beach inspired.

Pamela Favero Mills originally founded Pink Karma in 2014.
